NEW YORK, N. Y .- Of course it would be absurd to deay that there is a great deal of intelligence to be found stored in the brain of the Colored people of America, but they have a peculiar way of showing it especially in politics. For over fifty years the great majority of Negroes have been voting the republican ticket, and day and night have been carrying a razor up their sleeve for any democrat, it mattered Chicago, Sept. 24—The American or from the south. The only pos-diants, considered the weak sister sible thing today that any Colored of the League, after disposing of man can have against Gov.
